The Jaycee Creed by C. William Brownfield

We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; and that
SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS THE BEST WORK OF LIFE

The Lansing Jaycees is an organization of people ages 21–40 that promotes leadership training through community service. We meet the first Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. at Tripper's Bar and Grill in the Frandor Shopping Center, with dinner served between 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. Visit our website, www.lansingjaycees.org for more information.

President's Report

Training Opportunities with the Michigan Jaycees

The Michigan Jaycees are providing a couple of great training opportunities in the next couple of months that I am very excited about.

On Friday, April 4 at the Gene Davis and Sons Banquet Center in Jackson, the Michigan Jaycees will present "Leadership for the 21st Century." This will be an all day seminar with training sessions on communication and leadership presented by WorldLink Communications. This event is open to the public, but there are discounted registration fees for members of the Jaycees or the Chamber of Commerce.

Charlie Root
President

croot80@gmail.com

There will also be a Jaycee specific training day on Saturday, April 5 at the same location. I would especially like to highlight that a JCI Impact training session will be available. JCI Impact is a training developed for our organization to help our members learn how to make the biggest impact in their communities. I have never attended myself, but I have heard it is really amazing, and plan to attend this session. More specific information can be found at www.michiganjaycees.org/april-workshop as well as later in this newsletter. The other great opportunity provided by the Michigan Jaycees is the Leadership Conference that is taking place the weekend of May 9 through May 11 at Mission Point Resort on Mackinac Island. This is a great opportunity to build your Jaycee network as you meet new friends from around the state.

Details are still being released about what kind of training will be available, but I expect there will be some outstanding learning opportunities. There will also be plenty of chances to have fun and explore the island. On top of all that, the Kalamazoo Jaycees have challenged us to a point based competition of fundraising, membership and trivia. The loser (Kalamazoo) will cook the winner (us) breakfast ... and there will be bacon. For more information about the conference visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/michigan-jaycees-may-leadership-conference-mission-point-registration-10583707153>.

Changes to the Board of Directors

It is with mixed emotions that I announce that Ashley Orel has resigned from her position on the Board of Directors as Community Development Director. While I will miss the energy and excitement she brought to the position, I understand that due to recent life changes she no longer has the time available that the position requires. If you have any event ideas or questions in regard to Community Development, please direct them to Community Development Director Angela Clock.

Management Report

Enjoy the City!

The Jaycees are raising money by selling Enjoy the City coupon books! Why are we selling these? Well, they can pretty much sell themselves.

For $20, people can have the opportunity to save hundreds of dollars. If you golf, you can enjoy savings at area courses like El Dorado, Wheatfield Valley, and Royal Scot to name just a few. If you like to eat, there are savings for free (yes, free!) pizzas as well as great coupons at both chain (IHOP, Chili's, Boston Market, and Dunkin' Donuts) and local (Leo's, Frank's Press Box, Backyard BBQ, and Beggar's Banquet). And if that's still not enough to help you sell or convince you to buy, there are savings at retail establishments like Tom's Food Center, JoAnn Fabric, Food for Living, and Dick's Sporting Goods. Contact Carrie Larsen (phone / text 248-756-3840) for books to sell or to purchase one! To view the coupon book online, visit issuu.com/enjoythecityinc./docs/lansing_spring_15?e=2416109/6285528.

Be a Criminal for an Evening: Behind the Scenes with MSP!

The 126th Trooper Recruit School is currently in session at the Michigan State Police Academy. The Lansing Jaycees have been invited to participate in a very unique event – acting in scenario-based training, which is an integral part of preparing the recruits to be troopers. On Monday, April 21, the recruits will have their night-time scenarios. The Jaycees have the opportunity to tour the Academy, have dinner in the cafeteria, and participate in the scenarios. Stay tuned for more details. If you know of a place that would be interesting to tour, please contact Carrie Larsen or Lauren Leeds.

Bringing Back Scrip: How You Can Shop Like Normal and Help Out the Chapter

A couple years ago the Lansing Jaycees ran a fundraiser called "Shop with Scrip," which is a way you can purchase gift cards at no extra cost and a percentage of your purchase benefits a designated charity. The Chapter has a Scrip account, which means you can purchase gift cards for special occasions or normal, run of the mill everyday purchases you make.

Various retailers approve being part of the program and agree to give a certain percentage to charities. For example, say that like me, you purchase all of your gas from Speedway. Well, you can buy gift cards totaling either $25 or $100 and the Jaycees would get 4 percent of your purchase, but your gift card is for the full amount. Do all of your grocery shopping at Meijer? Good news, Meijer offers gift cards and kicks back 3 percent to charities.

Lauren Leeds
Management Director
lleeds823@gmail.com

Once you've purchased a gift card through Scrip you can have the ease of "reloading" many of them online, which means you don't have to wait for our order to ship. Additionally, there's a newer feature called "Scrip Now" that allows you to order online and then print a gift card for immediate use!

Look for information rolling out on this program later this spring. If you can't wait until then, feel free to contact me (Lauren Leeds) for more information.

Management Update

It is hard to believe we are a quarter way through the year already! It's been another busy month in Management. Let me break it down for you ...

Fundraising: Our efforts continue! We have held two Texas Hold 'Em Tournaments, are in the middle of selling Enjoy the City coupon books, and are looking into other options. If you have a knack for fundraising or want to work on an interesting and challenging project, let Carrie or Lauren know! We are happy to mentor people through the process.

Bylaws, Foundations, and tours ... oh, my! Work continues on reviewing and updating the chapter's governing documents. The next Bylaw Review meeting is Monday, April 7 at 7 p.m. at Biggby Coffee (2250 Lake Lansing Rd., Lansing). It's not too late to provide input! Work on the Lansing Jaycees Foundation continues, as well. On April 15 (yup – also Tax Day), we will start working on drafting bylaws. If you are not interested in bylaws, but are interested in helping start the foundation, please contact Carrie Larsen.

Carrie Larsen
Management Vice President
carriemay@aol.com

We also have an upcoming business tour of the Michigan State Police Training Academy. Check out the article in this newsletter for more information!

Management fun time: Sometimes, you just need a little laugh. I went back to one of my favorite websites that I haven't taken a look at in quite some time. It's a humorous look at government signs and can be found at <http://www.debv.com/humorsigns.htm>.

Here's a snippet:

If you spot terrorism (left), blow your anti-terrorism whistle. If you are Vin Diesel, yell really loud.

If you are sprayed with an unknown substance (right), stand and think about a cool design for a new tattoo.

Hurricanes, animal corpses and your potential new tattoo (bottom right) have a lot in common. Think about it.

Hopefully those gave you a few chuckles. Thank you for all of your hard work so far this year!

Individual Development Report

Go Emus!

I have mixed feelings about college sports. I like the pride they bring, but I hate the exploitation of student athletes. I like the scholarships, but I hate the overrun cost to universities.

I also hate the marketing. I graduated from Oakland University in 2004. As such I am a member of the Golden Grizzly nation. I hate this name; it's contrived, borrowing and knowing the history of where it comes from it's not so thinly veiled marketing stunt. Before I started at Oakland we were the Pioneers. Supposedly bears are tough and pioneers are lame, so the change was made. The bear is one of the most common mascots out there. Another common mascot is the eagle. I teach at Eastern Michigan University, home of the Eagles. One of many, many eagles. A powerful bird of prey for a collection of third, fourth and fifth tier teams. The power of the mascot as a natural thing bears no relation to the success of the team. Without wins schools without a storied history have a hard time generating pride.

I say EMU should take a cue from the Santa Cruz Banana Slugs, Scottsdale Artichokes and the Delta State Fighting Okra. The answer for EMU is simple. Just look at the name. EMU should be the Emus. The Eastern Michigan University Fighting Emus! Of better yet the ironic Eastern Michigan Flying Emus!

Go original, go silly and go Emus!

April Happy Hour Brings Us to Bad Brewing

The April Happy Hour will be held Friday, April 4 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Bad Brewing Company, located at 440 S. Jefferson St. in Mason.

Bad Brewing Company is a Mason secret that you'll want to know about. The bar does NOT serve food, so feel free to bring a snack, or order takeout from one of the surrounding restaurants. The beer and ambiance at Bad Brewing Company is worth the extra trouble!

Visualizing the Chapter

The pretty picture accompanying this article (bottom left) is a network graph. A network graph connects nodes (in this case people) by edges (in this case, the relationship is that they attended one or more events in common). Graphs like this are an object studied in discrete mathematics and computer science among other fields.

The picture shows that several people have been to events in common with a number of different people. It also shows that several people have been to no events this year. Part of this is due to incomplete data, but several people also in actuality have not been to an event this year. As the weather warms up, it would be great to see more people having a good time.

How is the data structured? I'm glad you asked. Let's suppose we have four people and two events. The first person attend the first event, but not the second. The second person attends both. The third person attends only the second. The fourth person attends none. We can represent this using a matrix, where each row is for people and each column is for events:

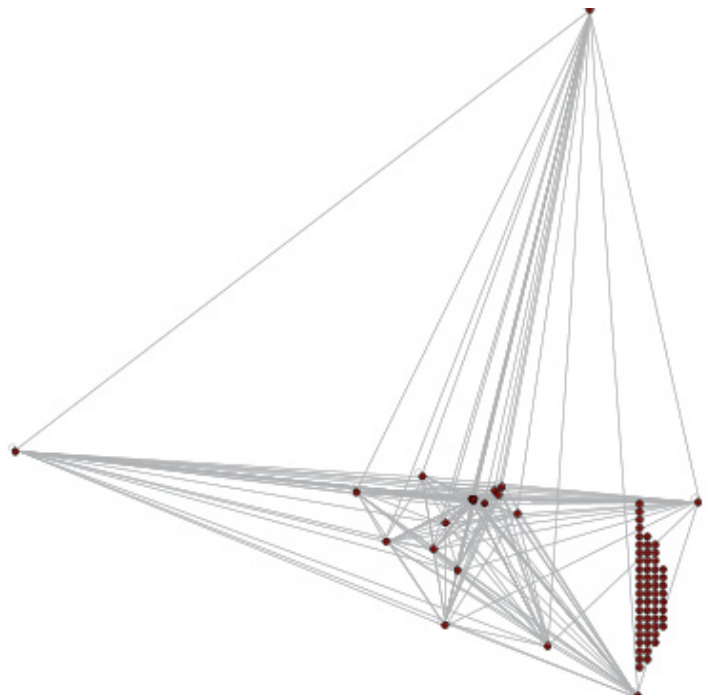

$$\begin{pmatrix} 1 & 0 \\ 1 & 1 \\ 0 & 1 \\ 0 & 0 \end{pmatrix}$$

If we multiply this incidence matrix by the transpose of the incidence matrix, we will get a 4x4 co-occurrence matrix, which shows that person 1 attended an event in common with just person 1 and no one else. You can see that person 2 attended events with person 1 and person 3. I then was able to take the co-occurrence or adjacency matrix and put it into a format called Pajek .mat file that was read into the Sci2 tool and visualized using GUESS.

I plan on bringing more visuals of the chapter to the chapter.

Jaycees Play Whirlyball and so Should You!

Whirlyball is a sport played on electric cars that resemble bumper cars. It is a combination of basketball, hockey and jai-alai. Also, it is kind of like quidditch, except instead of brooms, you are on electric cars. Eric Richmond had such a good time playing whirlyball that he decided to invite the Jaycees out to play for a couple hours.

The Lansing chapter may meet up with east side chapters to have a larger event. Food and beverages are available at Whirlyball Novi.

We are targeting a spring or summer date. A survey will be done to ask interested members what date(s) work best for them. If you would like to vote on what day we should have whirlyball or otherwise want to be kept in the loop, please email Eric Richmond at: edr@thelastbyte.com.

This should be a good time for all. The more people we have, the longer we can hang out and play.

Make sure to check out our other upcoming events, like the Lansing Jaycees Night at the Lansing Lugnuts. For more information, see the flyer on page 15.

Put your hats on – April is busy!

It's April – and that means, well, a ton of stuff is going on with the Lansing Jaycees!

First up, we'll have the second weekend of Pet Photos with the Easter Bunny on Sunday, April 5! Join us anytime between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Ingham County Animal Shelter, 600 Curtis St. in Mason. To get a photo of your pet with the Easter Bunny, you can make a monetary donation to the shelter or bring a wish list item such as KONG Toys and Cheez Whiz, canned cat food, big and small rawhide chew bones, any cat or dog toy and collars/leashes!

We're also still planning for Relay for Life in June at Lugnuts Stadium! Join the committee on Wednesday, April 9 to plan how our team will help fight cancer!

10,000 eggs? Stickers, erasers and candy, oh my? Join us on Saturday, April 12 at Sohn Linen, 2401 Wood St., in Lansing to stuff eggs for the Easter Egg Hunt! Lunch will be provided, but bring a snack to share! We'll begin at 8 a.m. and be done by 2:30 p.m. (though probably earlier). Many hands make light work, so come on over!

We'll need all hands on deck for the 56th Annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 19. Last year, we had approximately 2,000 community members join us for a morning of mascots, face painting, balloon animals, and of course, Easter eggs! Volunteers will be needed beginning at 8 a.m. and the event will be over by noon. Check out the Volunteer Spot to sign up for a shift!

The following weekend, the chapter will be participating in Bowl for Kids' Sake to raise money for Big Brothers Big Sisters Michigan Capital Region. We've been participating in this event since 2008 and our goal this year is to raise $1,000 to provide a match to a child in the area. We'll be bowling at Royal Scot on Friday, April 25 at 8 p.m. Sign up or donate below!

Why you should know Gordy Klatt

Dr. Gordy Klatt is the “father” of Relay For Life. As a colorectal surgeon in Tacoma, Washington, Gordy wanted to make a difference at his local American Cancer Society. He looked to what he loved for inspiration: running.

In 1985, Gordy ran 83 miles in 24 hours and raised $27,000 for the American Cancer Society (ACS). Friends and family donated money for the pleasure of running or walking a few laps with him and to support the great work that ACS does. That night, Gordy could not have known that he would inspire others to do the same in their towns and that the Relay For Life event would grow into the largest fundraising event in the world. The events take place in 5,200 communities nationwide and 20 countries each year, bringing in about $400 million a year to help fight cancer! All of this is because of one man’s creative idea to do something good.

Gordy is a hero to so many and now he is not just fighting cancer for his patients, friends, and neighbors. He is now battling for his own fight against cancer. Gordy was diagnosed with stomach cancer in 2012 and he is still active with ACS. Let’s honor Gordy this year, and all of those we know who are battling cancer, by exceeding our goal of $7,500. We have already raised $1,058! We can do this!

What will be your Gordy Klatt moment? We are always in need of creative fundraising ideas that we can use for fundraising up until the event on June 27 and 28 and beyond! Although we would love to surpass our goal at Relay, we have until August to submit any funds raised. Every little bit adds up, so don’t think that your idea for a fundraiser won’t raise enough money. Don’t worry if you can’t come up with a fundraiser idea either. We also need team members to help make items to sell, help set-up at the event, sell items at the event, walk laps, cheer everyone on, and more! Come to one our meetings to find out how!

Lansing Jaycees Trivia

1. How many members are "charter members" of the Lansing Jaycees?
2. What is the most numbers of members ever of the Lansing Jaycees?
3. What is commonly considered to be the largest event the Lansing Jaycees ran in our inaugural year of existence?

3. Air show at what became Capital City Airport. More than 10,000 people attended and $800 was raised. The funds were used to dig a well for the water-cooled aircraft engines of the time and to improve the drainage of the swamp cow pasture that is the site of the now airport.

Chair of the Board Report

The Brotherhood of Man ...

In this installment of the Jaycee creed, we'll discuss the second line of our creed:

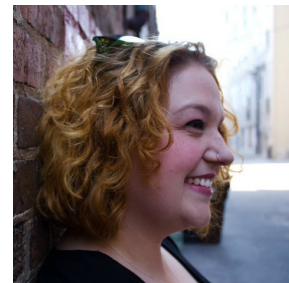

“That the Brotherhood of Man Transcends the Sovereignty of Nations.”

One of our Individual Development commissions is International Involvement - I think this commission speaks directly to this line of our creed. When we educate ourselves about cultures different than our own, we expand our own world.

From usjayceefoundation.org: “God made man in His own image to work together and share the earth. Jaycees gives us an opportunity to practice the art of living together in the spirit of brotherhood and in the true interest of humanity.”

Today, we are, without a doubt a secular organization, but take away the “God made man in His own image” statement, and you still have a very definitive statement of what it is to be a part of the Jaycees. I would also argue that this line of the creed encompasses what it is to be involved in our community as well, thus encapsulating our Community Area of Opportunity, too.

The entire creed is something that links all chapters ALL AROUND THE WORLD together, that fact itself transcends the nations to make all Jaycees one family.
