LANSING JAYCEES ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT

I am proud to report that the Lansing Jaycees' 2011 Easter Egg Hunt was a smashing success! Despite fears of late April snow, the sun came out and other than a little mud, the weather was fantastic this year!

Children and their parents from across the greater Lansing area came out to the Capitol lawn to play games; visit with the Easter Bunny, McGruff the Crime Dog and Sparty; do crafts; check out the Potter Park Zoo exhibit; wait on line for a balloon animal from Crash the Clown; or check out the Lansing Fire Department fire engine.

Again this year folks from Mutual of Omaha came out to do child ID kits for local families free of charge. For the first time, we had a local martial arts studio join us to do demonstrations of child safety and give away prizes.

Most importantly, every child left with candy, stickers, toys and a belly full of laughter. Capitol Jim (last name Fox) estimated this year's crowd at more than 1,000 people in attendance. That's a record-breaking number for our hunt.

Numerous members and non-members banded together to stuff more than 10,000 eggs and plan the day for children in the community.

Having never even attended the Easter Egg Hunt before joining last September, I wasn't sure what to expect when Saturday, April 23 rolled around. Luckily, all our planning and hard work paid off.

Children at the Easter Egg Hunt pet a hedgehog provided by Potter Park Zoo.

Many thanks to everyone who helped make the event a success again this year!

Andrea Stay helps children decorate bags for collecting eggs at the Easter Egg Hunt.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our community business partners: Sohn Linen Service, Geno's Pizzeria, 97.5 NOW and Josh Strickland, Soup Spoon Café, Victory Martial Arts, the East Lansing YMCA, MSU Community Music School, FunTyme Adventure Parks, Pizza Hut, Pro-Bowl, Impression 5 and Edru Skatarama.

Without their generous donations of space, food and gift certificates, we would not have been able to stuff all those eggs and hold a successful raffle to help offset the costs of this fantastic and free community event.

If you missed the Easter Egg Hunt this year, make sure to mark your calendar for the Saturday before Easter next year. It's a great project to work on and attend!

A MESSAGE FROM THE LANSING JAYCEES 83RD PRESIDENT

How do you spend your spare time? I know some of you are asking “What spare time?” A 2009 Harris polls confirms what many of us are thinking, it seems like we have less leisure time now then we used to. So given that it is a luxury, how do you pass the hours if you find that you have free time?

Some of the most popular leisure activities in the US are reading, watching TV, spending time with friends and families, computer activities and exercising. This is a shocking statistic as it seems like more people are spending their spare time doing individual activities such as reading, and computer activities and less time with friends and families.

This is concerning because building relationships is important at every stage of your life. I started thinking of this as we stuffed Easter eggs last month. A Junior and Brownie Troup from Davison have been assisting with stuffing for the past two years. Each time they leave the girls’ sing a couple songs and thank us for letting them help.

One of the traditional songs that perform is “Make New Friends”. According to www.scoutingweb.com the common lyrics are:

Make new friends,
but keep the old.
One is silver,
the other is gold.

A circle is round,
it has no end.
That's how long,
I will be your friend.

A fire burns bright,
it warms the heart.
We've been friends,
from the very start.

You have one hand,
I have the other.

Put them together,
We have each other.

Silver is precious,
Gold is too.
I am precious,
and so are you.

You help me,
and I'll help you
and together
we will see it through.

The sky is blue
The Earth is green
I can help to keep it clean

This is a simple song but it helps us remember that you can never have too many friends. This article may not be as heartwarming as watching a troop of girls singing but the message is still the same. Friendship is a great reward that should be treasured.

The reason that I bring this up is I have heard several people mention that they determine the Jaycees events that they will attend based on who else is attending. You may be missing out on meeting new people, learning something new and making an impact on the community because of this. If you typically wait to see who is attending an event, consider being the first one to respond. This may provide an opportunity to expand your comfort zone.

As the daylight hours become longer you may find yourself with a little more time. It would be an honor if you spent it with the Lansing Jaycees. This is a great way to spend your leisure time! Check out our website www.lansingjaycees.org and this newsletter for our upcoming events.

Sincerely,
Angela M. Fossi

A MESSAGE FROM THE MEMBERSHIP VICE PRESIDENT

“What you put in to it, is what you will get out of it!”

I'm sure many of you have heard the above quote throughout your life. Every time I hear it I seem to take it as a personal challenge. However, how do you measure any involvement, whether it be work, family life, personal projects, sporting challenges, etc.

The Lansing Jaycees, Michigan Jaycees and U.S. Jaycees provide members a way to experience all that the Jaycees provide with an easy itinerary, plus incentives!

THE PASSPORT TO LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

With this program you receive each event that you attend and each milestone in your Jaycee life provides you another “stamp” in your passport. All while having fun, being with friends, learning new skills and helping our great community!!!

The Lansing Jaycees is proud to announce and present a new and easier way of keeping track of these “stamps”. All members will be given their own punch card.

At each event you attend all you have to do is have any board member initial for the event. The more you are active this more initialed spots you get. Local recognition will be given at GMM's and state recognition will be given at conventions. For further information, please attend our next New Member Orientation – Info Night on June 1st or the June GMM on June 7th! If you cannot make it to either of these events, do not hesitate to contact me directly. I will also have cards at all events. Don't forget to get yours soon and start your passport to LEADERSHIP!

If you have any questions or are for further great experiences, do not hesitate to contact me. I look forward to seeing you at the next Lansing Jaycees event!!!

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD

What Have You Learned from Being a Jaycee?

We all joined the Jaycees for different reasons. Sometimes it's to meet people; sometimes it's to get more involved in the community. Many of us find that we renew each year for different reasons than why we joined.

Sometimes we get so caught up in attending events and running projects that we forget to ask ourselves, “What have I learned from the Jaycees?”

When I look at my Jaycee career, some of the highlights of what I've learned include being able to speak in front of a group of 400 people at a National convention; how to plan a project from start to finish and work together as a team to accomplish our goals; how to train others to make the most of their time in the Jaycees; that I want to do everything I can to help others reach their goals.

Whether you've been a member for 3 months or 10 years, take a few minutes to think about what you've learned since you've been a part of the Jaycees. I bet you can come up with something. Take that knowledge and apply it to things you do in the future – in the Jaycees, your professional life and your personal life.

Yours in Service,
Angela M. Clock

Favorite Movie and/or book: Star Wars and the Book of Psalms

Favorite Type of Music: Jazz and Gospel

Do you have any pets? One dog named Isaiah, he's a spoiled pampered pooch Favorite Food: Pizza, lobster, French fries and chocolate, though not necessarily in that order or at the same time.

Favorite Game or Sport: Football and hockey

2011 Goal: To give more, take less, laugh longer and love harder. I could have gone the whole professional accomplishment route, but all in all God has been good to me so I figure its time to give back.

First car: dodge diplomat, I had a chuckle bug as a kid but didn't figure that counted

Why I joined the Jaycees: community outreach and professional development

Random Fact: I like to hunt, swim, fish and ski and when I was 28 I went on two shark dives, and yes though I was scared senseless I would do it again. Guess I'm just crazy that way.

Favorite Jaycee Project and reason: I haven't participated in many, but I loved being the Easter Bunny, seeing the kids faces and all of the dog lovers was a blast.

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

Why do you Relay?

There are many reasons people participate in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. What or who will your reason be?

Whatever the reason, please join our team on June 3 and 4 for the Lansing Relay for Life. Lansing Catholic Central High School is once again hosting this 24-hour event and the Relay coordinators are working hard to make this the most successful year ever! The theme for Relay 2011 is "Relay Around the World."

We have a couple of challenges set up if we make some key fundraising goals: At $1,500, Joe Kelly will shave his head. From our faithful leaders Angela Clock and Angela Fossi, if we raise $2,500 they will surprise us with an activity!

Join our team and start raising money for a cure now! Visit relayforlife.com/lansingmi

BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE A STRIKE FOR LANSING JAYCEES / BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS

On April 29, five Lansing Jaycees and one Exhausted Rooster spent their evening bowling for kids at the Big Brothers Big Sisters Bowl For Kids' Sake Lansing Event at the Royal Scot. The team, composed of Lori Castelein, Angela Clock, Angela Fossi, Dan Harris, Charlie Root, and Sally Sohn, raised over $1300 dollars for BBBS, which well exceeded their set goal of $1000. This put the team in 3rd place in the Donations category out of 58 teams!

Besides two free games of bowling, the Jaycee team enjoyed free pizza and pop and earned free t-shirts to wear at the event. Dan Harris won the award for the Most Unique Bowling Style, and Charlie Root won a night stay at a local casino.

The event raised over $72,000 for the non-profit organization that helps to make the world a little better for children of the community. The money will be used to make matches between Bigs and Littles, which costs BBBS $1000 each time a match is made. Research has shown that children who spend time with their Big mentors are more likely to stay in school and less likely to abuse drugs or alcohol.

In all, the event was a fantastic way to help another community organization while still having a good time with good people!

A MESSAGE FROM THE INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT VICE PRESIDENT

I am pleased to say the individual development commissions are off to a great second quarter! On May 5th friends from our community attended the Get Your Food On - Mongolian BBQ. Patrons had an opportunity to learn about Mongolian culture and as this fell on May 5th, we had Cinco de Mayo trivia as well. Holding this event in conjunction with the Relay for Life was a major success as 70 patrons showed up to support both projects. Mongolian BBQ contributed $1 towards the Relay for Life fundraiser for each patron show mentioned the Lansing Jaycees. Running both events seemed to draw in a great crowd! We have several upcoming events including Comedy for a Cause at Connxtions Comedy Club on May 19th, a driving range lesson with Ron Applegate on from 6:30 to 7:30pm on May 26th at Sycamore Golf Range and a short-game at Ironwood Links from 6:30 to 8pm on May 31st. Resume and Interview workshops will be rescheduled to fit on a weekday evening as many people that wanted to attend seemed to favor this format. We will also have a couple of great sports to try out in the near future: cricket and archery! I am also happy to say that we have had a plethora of Get Your Food On events suggested by several people willing to chair them so be on the look out for fun international food options in the coming months!

BUSINESS LUNCHEON AT BRAVO! HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The Lansing Jaycees had the opportunity to meet Dena Vatalaro, Development Director for Habitat for Humanity Lansing at Bravo! April 13th over a casual, get to know you business luncheon. Everyone who attended had a great time listening to the story behind Dena's experience at Habitat for Humanity, learning more about their cause, and enjoy some fine Italian food. Dena shared some gifts from Habitat for Humanity with those who attended. We even learned a few things about securing donations for fundraising opportunities, witnessing her approach the restaurant manager for a sizable donation of gift certificates for a future silent auction she is hosting. Do you have a business leader you'd like to meet face-to-face? Why not put on your own Business Luncheon event and make it happen!

Life Coaching In Your Inbox – By Way of Introduction...

Greetings, Lansing Jaycees! My name is Julica and I have recently been recruited by your Community Development Director, the fabulous Lauren Leeds, to write a monthly “something” for your newsletter.

I am a life coach here in Lansing, and my goal and passion is to help people live the life they love without compromises. My “fancy marketing tagline” is: Life coaching for social workers, activists and rebels who refuse to abandon joy on the road to justice. So, if you are into making a big difference in the world and feeling joyful and excited while doing so, then you are one of my peeps! Hi! It’s nice to meet you. ☺

I figured the first “something” should be some type of introduction and explanation about life coaching. Though it is becoming more popular and mainstream, I often still get curious and puzzled looks when I tell people I’m a life coach. The two most common questions are “You’re a what?” and “What’s the difference between coaching and therapy?”

One of the ways I like to address these questions is to explain that a life coach is to a therapist as a personal trainer is to a doctor. When you’re sick, you go to a doctor. When you want to get super healthy and fit, you hire a personal trainer. When you’re sad, you go to a therapist. When you want to be super happy and play big in the world, you hire a life coach.

Life coaching is a very special relationship where you give yourself permission to admit your deepest dreams and then go about making them a reality. My job is to ask provocative questions, keep you accountable, and help you discover the patterns that are holding you back from claiming and living the life you want. Your job is to either forward the action of whatever you’ve decided needs doing to be happier, or deepen the knowledge of why you’re stuck and not moving forward. It’s a powerful and personal process. (I often want to ask someone to pinch me, I love my work so much.)

I am looking forward to using this monthly column as a space to support you fabulous peeps in making a bigger and happier splash in the Lansing community. My secret hope is that perhaps we can use this column as a “coaching advice column” where you email me some questions and I offer you a useful tool or perspective to help you shift and move forward. So be on the lookout for a request to submit coaching questions in your inbox soon!

And if you’re curious and want to learn more about how coaching works, feel free to sign up for my monthly free call at my website: <http://julicahermann.com>

A MESSAGE FROM THE MANAGEMENT VICE PRESIDENT

Two Great Events to Look Forward To!

Haunted House

It's that time of year again! We are starting to gear up planning for the Haunted House. Woot! Currently there is planning going on to determine the location of this years Haunted House. Last years location is in the running but we are exploring other potential locations. The truly great thing about the Haunted House is that it allows all Jaycees the opportunity to be involved in some way.

Interested in art? Help with designing rooms, or creating flyers. Like working with your hands? Help out with constructions. Maybe you just really like meeting new people? Help out with recruiting volunteers or training Spooks. Have you always been interested in theater or acting? You can be a Spook and scare people as they go through the house or work behind the scenes to make sure that everything is running properly. Maybe you have no interest in scaring people but are really interested in procuring supplies and materials? You can work with the community groups and companies to help solicit materials or donations. Check out the Haunted House and find out a way to get involved today!

Great Lakes Folk Festival

The Lansing Jaycees will be running a Beer and Wine Tent at the Great Lakes Folk Festival August 12th – 14th. During this event we will be working with a regional distributor to supply us with Great Lakes regional Beer and Wines. However the Lansing Jaycees will be responsible for all aspects of manning the beer and wine tent. This includes checking ID's, making sales, pouring beer, stocking supplies, and more. We will be looking for people interested in helping secure the distributor, do promotion of the event, pour beer and wine, sale tickets or act as a bouncer!

Stay tuned for additional details on how to get involved with the Beer and Wine Tent at the Great Lakes Folk Festival!

A MESSAGE FROM THE TREASURER

Did you ever want to plan an event but you didn't know what financial resources are available?

The good news is there are many resources available to you to help plan your event. Each Vice President has a budget for their area. The funds can be used to pay for speakers, transportation, supply costs and many more things (we cannot purchase alcohol). Below are the steps to take to plan an event.

1. Talk to the Vice President or Director of the area of the project you are wishing to conduct or....any board member.
2. The board member will check with our President to make sure the date is available.
3. The board member will assist you with putting together a Chairpersons Planning Guide (CPG).
4. Part of the CPG is the budget, this is the area you will gather the estimated costs for the project so you know how much money will have to be allocated to the project.
5. The CPG will be presented to the board prior to the next board meeting where it will be reviewed.
6. The board will approve your event and budget (may not happen in all cases, depending on the event/budget).
7. The event is planned, advertised and held.
8. A final CPG is prepared (with the assistance of a board member if needed) including a final budget.
9. The final CPG will be presented and approved by the board.
10. Expenses can be reimbursed with receipts as soon as the preliminary budget is approved. If the event goes over budget, the board will have to approve for the additional funds to be covered (this may not always be approved so make sure to stay within budget).

If you have any questions on this process or any process, feel free to contact any board member.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

Have you ever wanted to chair an event and didn't know where to start? Enter the Chairperson's Planning Guide, or CPG.

While those there letters – C. P. G. – strike fear into hearts of some people, they shouldn't. The CPG is simply a guide (hence, the G.) to help you complete all the steps necessary to insure your event is a success. Steps to be completed include:

1. Primary Purpose (What is the one reason you want to successfully run this project?)
2. Give a brief description of the proposed project and background information. Follow this with a listing of the specific and measurable goals to be accomplished by this project. (Example: to involve 25 Jaycees.)
3. What are the specific manpower assignments? (Show names and duties)
4. What specific materials, supplies and resources will be required?
5. Describe the potential problems and potential solutions to successfully complete this project.
6. Complete a Proposed Budget indicating all anticipated income and expense. Include donated items both as income and expense.
7. List the specific steps to bring this project to a successful completion showing planned dates for each step.
8. Record any revision of the original plan.
9. What changes or recommendations do you have for a future chairperson?
10. Give specific and measurable results for each goal established. Describe the impact of this project on the chapter, individual members, and the community.

Steps 1 through 7 have to be completed before the event to make sure you have everything you need. Steps 8 through 10 are completed after the event to show what you accomplished.

Completion of the CPG is not difficult; in fact, we have several archived that you can use as a template for your event.

So, if you have an idea you want to see come to life, talk to a VP or any board member and get started on your own CPG!
