HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

2008 Year End Convention – Right Here, Right Now, the Sky's the Limit!

From February 13th-15th, the Michigan Jaycees held the 2008 Year End Convention in Big Rapids. This was an amazing event that 3 Lansing Jaycees attended. We had the chance to hang out with the Charlotte Jaycees, who are also a part of Region D, and to meet many new people!

The Michigan Jaycees organization grew for the first time in 8 years! The celebration of this was highlighted during the Saturday evening banquet, at which 2008 USJC President, Denise P. O'Neill spoke to everyone in attendance. Michigan is one of a very few states in the nation to be at growth in 2008.

M. Castelein, A. Clock & A. Fossi at Year End Convention

Angela Fossi and Mike Castelein participated in the First Timers Program, put on by the JCI Senators. This is a program that gives first time convention participants (I know, Mike has been before!) a chance to meet people from other chapters, learn about the organization, and just have fun! Both of them did a fantastic job talking to people, and received a reward at the end of the night.

Saturday morning was the quarterly business meeting, followed by trainings, including officer trainings. Awards were given throughout the day, and the Lansing Jaycees were named the Membership Area of Opportunity Chapter of the Quarter in Base Group C, and our very own Stuff the Bus event took home an award in the Children & Youth Commission! On Saturday night after the banquet, to celebrate growth – there was free pizza and beer available to all convention participants!

I encourage all of you to come to Boyne for the 1st Quarter Convention from May 1st-3rd. It will be a great time!

Jaycee Creed

by C. William Brownfield

*We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends
the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws
rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; and that*
SERVICE TO HUMANITY IS THE BEST WORK OF LIFE

The Lansing Jaycees is an organization of people ages 21-40 which promotes leadership training through community service. We meet the first Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. (dinner from 6 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.) at Tripper's Bar and Grill in Frandor. Visit our website, www.lansingjaycees.org for more information.

Keep the Momentum Going!

The Lansing Jaycees have had a great start to 2009. As we get ready to wind down the first quarter, I just want to let our membership know what fantastic things have been going on!

We have been relentless in making sure people in the Lansing are aware of the Jaycees. We've posted on websites such as Volunteer Match, Craigslist, and Facebook. These postings have generated interest in the Lansing Jaycees, and make the community aware of our impact on the area.

We've been reaching out to the community and inviting local groups and organizations to speak at our General Membership Meetings. Thank you to Titus Farms, the Greater Lansing Food Bank, and Big Brothers Big Sisters for letting us know more about their organizations, while also taking the time to meet us. Someone from the American Cancer Society will be speaking at our April GMM regarding Relay for Life. I'm looking forward to having more groups at our GMM's, so if you have suggestions, please let me know!

A large variety of projects has been offered so far this year, including the Super Bowl Party, Get Your Food On at various locations, Book Club, Happy Hours, and Snowshoeing and Skiing. We have had committees working hard on planning events such as the Easter Egg Hunt and our Lansing 150 Parade of the Decades entry. I want to thank everyone for working so hard on making all of these events a success!

Don't forget – May 1st-3rd is the Michigan Jaycees 1st Quarter Convention at Boyne Mountain. You don't want to miss this event! Our chapter will cover registration fees, which includes meals, and individuals are responsible for transportation and room costs. If you are interested in going, please let me know as soon as possible – we must turn in our room form by March 31st!

I would also like to take this opportunity to make a challenge to our chapter. I'm not the first one to do this, and I probably won't be the last. However, I will be growing my hair out throughout the year – if the Lansing Jaycees end this year with more members than we began with, I will allow our Membership Vice-President, Angela Fossi, to cut my hair for Locks of Love (with a little help of course!) I sure hope she's good with a pair of scissors! Details are to come, but don't worry – you'll all get to witness this happen!

So, bring your friends and co-workers to an event! Let them see how great the Lansing Jaycees are and why you're a part of this great organization!

Yours in Service,

Angela M. Clock, 81st President

A Message from the Membership VP

Think Spring!

March 20th is the official start of spring. If you are like me that date can't come soon enough. I look forward to seeing more warm weather events on our calendar. This is also the time of year when spring fever can creep up on all of us. According to Dictionary.com, spring fever is a listless, lazy, or restless feeling commonly associated with the beginning of spring. So in between bursts of cleaning and mid afternoon naps make sure you keep an eye on the Lansing Jaycees calendar to help cope with any signs of spring fever.

I wanted to welcome all of our new members and prospects! It has been great meeting all of you and I look forward to watching you take part in the opportunities offered by the Jaycees. It looks like this will be a busy spring with wide range of events planned from the Easter Egg Hunt to the beginning of the softball season. Please take part in these exciting events to get to know some great people and have fun in the community.

I have spent a couple of exciting nights at MSU talking about the Jaycees and the feedback has been fantastic. As a result of the MSU events we have had several people request to be added to the prospect list. We have helped dozens of people learn about the Jaycees and they have really been happy with what they have heard. If you have any schools or groups that would like to hear more about the Jaycees please contact me and we can make arrangements for a presentation. We are continuing to use the web to advertise specific events and/or the Jaycees. I can honestly say we are working hard to build the buzz about the Lansing Jaycees and so far it has been a great. Let's continue to look for opportunities to spread the word about our group.

Our calendar has some great events planned for March. We have a couple of events that I want to highlight. Our first Texas Hold'em of 2009 will be March 19th – 22nd. This is an event we do a few times a year to raise funds for our projects. Please sign up to work at this event so we can continue to use the money we raise to fund community and other chapter events. You do not need special training or experience to help, we are responsible for exchanging cash from the players into chips so you don't need any prior knowledge of Texas Hold'em to help out. We also have a new member orientation on the calendar for March 23rd. This event provides some great information regarding the benefits of being a Jaycee.

Feel free to contact me with any questions or comments.

GYGO Is Back! – That's right folks – the first "Get Your Game On" of 2009 was held in February at Bridget Burnell's house! While Bunko was the plan for the evening, we didn't have quite enough people to keep the game interesting. So instead a few rounds of "Boxers or Briefs" were played – and Yes! It is as entertaining as it sounds! There was much laughter throughout the evening as 9 attendees learned how well we knew each other... and now may just know a little too much ☺ Be on the lookout for the next GYGO coming soon!!!

March 27th - MSU Museum Wine Tasting Benefit

About 10 people are needed to help pour wine during the MSU Museum Wine Tasting Benefit at the Kellogg Center from 7:30-9:30pm. You will be paired up with a vendor and they will describe their wines to the public while you give them a taste – State law prohibits the vendors from pouring the wine. After the shift is done, you can go and sample other wines; there will be over 100 different varieties. There will also be a silent auction, door prizes and hors d'oeuvres. An Evite will be sent later this month. <http://museum.msu.edu/Events/WineTasting/>

March 28th – Serving Dinner at Ronald McDonald House

On Saturday from 5:30-7:30pm, come and help us make and serve dinner for the families at the Ronald McDonald House of Mid-Michigan. Approximately 4-5 families will be served and two volunteers are needed per family for a total of 8-10 volunteers. An Evite will be sent later this month. <http://rmhmm.org/>

This year our chapter has formed a team and will be participating in Lansing's Relay for Life event on June 5-6th.

Chairperson: Alexandra Briseno;
xandrab@hotmail.com 517-974-0965

Relay for Life is a 24 hour event held at the Lansing Catholic High School track. Teams are made up of friends, family and co-workers and team members take shift to walk around the track in support of the fight against cancer. There will be music, activities and games during the event. Other events will be a Victory Lap for cancer survivors and a Luminaria Ceremony at sundown.

We have four registered members for our team and have raised $500 so far. Our goal is to have over 10 members and a fundraising goal of $2000. If you are interested in joining our team, sign up at:
http://main.acsevents.org/site/TR/RelayForLife/RFLFY09GL?team_id=398383&pg=team&fr_id=14401

If you sign up now and raise $100 by April 14th, you will receive a Relay for Life t-shirt to wear during the event.

Luminaria Ceremony: Paper luminaries can be bought for $10 each. You can decorate them for someone in Honor Of or in Memory Of someone with cancer. These will line the track during the event and at sundown will be lit and the names listed. The deadline to register someone's name is May 19th. I have several luminaries for sale, so contact me if you are interested.

I am planning to have a speaker from the Relay for Life committee come to our next General Member Meeting on April 7th to talk more about the event.

Individual Development

A Message from the Individual Development VP

Hello All!

We had another successful month full of ID events. Jamie Hutchinson hosted February's GYFO which supported a new locally owned business on the MSU campus. Sean Kottke held another Book Club meeting, this time on Christopher Moore's "Fool". Also several of our members attended the 4th quarter convention chaired by Angela Clock. March is yet again full of ID events for our members benefit.

Continuing on my series of lessons I decided to tackle organizational skills. Having being recently elected as the Lansing IDVP for 2009 I quickly found myself needing to be more organized in my life outside of work. Luckily for me I had just bought a new cell phone that had a much more advanced calendar than my previous phone. I'm rather happy that I use it as my organizer because I'm pretty sure I would be showing up at the wrong places and times wondering where everyone is at. Anytime I have something new come up that I need to be at I just pop it in to the calendar and forget about worrying that I'll miss something. I also set a ring tone to remind me of the event during the day which helps me remember if I have a busy day at work. However it encourages my co-workers to beat it to a pulp when I leave it at my desk and they can't figure out how to turn the ring tone off! I've also done this with my email inbox as well which has been separated into three major categories to help me quickly access the emails in each category. I found a list of ten benefits of organization which I've included on the next page of this newsletter.

As always if you have any ideas for ID events you'd like to see added to the calendar please let me know. They can be events that improve your personal as well as professional skills.

Take Pride in Your Country with the Lansing Jaycees Book Club!

In February, five avid readers gathered at the Gone Wired Café to discuss the works of Christopher Moore and to laugh the night away with our favorite bits of wit and wisdom from Moore's library of comic novels.

For our next outing, the Book Club will be digging into State by State: A Panoramic Portrait of America, a collection edited by Matt Weiland and Sean Wilsey that features essays on all 50 states by 50 contemporary authors.

Want to know which state ranks #1 in toothlessness? How about where Michigan ranks in terms of gasoline consumption?

Read as many or as few of the essays as you wish, and come to the Gone Wired Cafe (2021 East Michigan Ave.) on Saturday, March 28 at 8:30 PM for coffee and conversation with your fellow Jaycees.

Contact Chairperson Sean Kottke on Facebook or via email (misterck@hotmail.com) if you have any questions about Book Club or have recommendations for future titles

Chaplain's Message

Our Chaplain is on hiatus right now, but had she been available – I am certain that she would encourage our membership to pay homage to St. Patrick this month in whatever way you see fit!

Sport the Green (easy for Lansing Residents!) and if you are so inclined – raise those glasses tall! And maybe remember to think about your good fortune – even as simple as a roof over your head and food on your table – especially in these challenging times... is there some way you can help someone less fortunate than you this St. Patty's Day?

A Message from the Management VP

The first Texas Hold'em Tournament charity event of the year is fast approaching (March 19th through March 22nd). We have gotten a great response from the chapter in regards to filling volunteer time slots for the four-day event. There are still four volunteer time slots available. If interested or have any questions please contact Angela Fossi at 586-484-7027 or kitispart@gmail.com.

The next sponsorship committee meeting is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on March 16th at R-Club. The goal of this committee is to establish working relationships with local businesses that benefit both organizations. I would like to see this program really take off and grow. If anyone has connections with local businesses that they believe may be interested in such a program or has ideas of what the program should consist of, please attend the committee meeting or contact me at 517-316-5466 or niekampj@hotmail.com.

If you have any other ideas or suggestions that fall under Management VP, please send them my way. Spring is just around the corner!
